DEATH OF JETT TRAVOLTA dob 13.4.92

At about 11:40am on Friday 2.1.09, officers at the Central Detective Unit on Grand Bahama received information that Jett Travolta, 16 yrs, son of movie star John Travolta, fell ill while at Old Bahama Bay Resort in West End and is en route to the Rand Memorial Hospital in Freeport via ambulance.

As a result of this report, a team of officers were dispatched to investigate.

They received information at the hospital that Travolta was pronounced dead upon arrival at the hospital.

Information is that the deceased arrived on Grand Bahama on 30th December 2008, aboard a private aircraft, accompanied by his father and mother Kelly of Encino Drive, California 91436.

They were staying at Travolta's suite # at the Old Bahama Bay Resort.

Further information is that Jett suffered from seizures.

He was last seen on 1st January 2009 when he went to use the bathroom at their residence.

He was discovered in the bathroom in an unconscious state around 10:00am on Tuesday 2nd January 2009 by the caretaker: Jeff Michael Kathrain.

Arrangements are being made to have an autopsy performed, in order to determine the exact cause of death.
